

FTP and IFS Training Course & User Workbook

BY Helen Albinson

June 1980

ABSTRACT

This is a self-paced course in the use of the File Transfer Program (FTP) and the Integrated File Server (IFS). It assumes familiarity with the Xerox Document System.

XEROX

OFFICE PRODUCTS DIVISION
3333 Coyote Hill Road / Palo Alto / California 94304

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Section 1: BASIC FTP.....	1.....
What Is FTP?.....	1.....
How To Begin Your FTP Session.....	3.....
The FTP Display.....	3.....
The Server Window.....	3.....
The User Window.....	4.....
How To Open A Connection With A Remote Workstation.....	5.....
Storing Files.....	6.....
Retrieving Files.....	8.....
How to Close A Connection Or Quit From FTP.....	10.....
Summary - Basic FTP.....	11.....
Exercise 1.....	12.....
Section 2: USING FTP AND IES.....	14.....
How To Open An IFS Connection.....	15.....
Storing Files At An IES.....	17.....
Retrieving Files From An IFS.....	19.....
How To Close (or Quit From) An IFS Connection.....	21.....
Summary - Opening and Closing An IFS Connection.....	22.....
Exercise 2.....	22.....
Section 3: IFS DIRECTORIES.....	24.....
Directories And Subdirectories.....	25.....
Retrieving A File From Another Directory.....	26.....
Retrieving A File From Another Directory - Attaching.....	26.....
Retrieving A File From Another Directory - Pointing.....	28.....
Retrieving A File From Another Directory - Connecting.....	30.....
Summary - IFS Directories.....	31.....
Exercise 3.....	31.....
Section 4: MANAGING YOUR IFS DIRECTORY.....	33.....
What's On Your IFS Directory?.....	33.....
Listing Files On Your IFS Directory.....	33.....
Listing Specific Files On Your IFS Directory.....	34.....
Listing Subdirectory Files On Your IFS Directory.....	35.....
Version Numbers.....	36.....
Renaming Files.....	36.....
Deleting Files.....	38.....
Printing File Lists From Your IFS Directory.....	39.....

Read Protecting Files On Your IFS Directory.....40.....

Summary - Managing Your IFS Directory.....41.....

Exercise 4.....41.....

Abbreviations.....43.....